

IAIA Disc Golf Course Hole Descriptions

1. Pro--259
Am--193
A short, uphill, and straightforward par 3. Avoid the guardian trees to get a birdie; long and left is a safe play.
2. Pro--278
Am--201
With a tight, technical green, this par 3 has plenty of dangers. A safe landing zone is left of the basket.
3. Pro--405
Am--232
This par 3 finishes uphill to a tight green. Big arms may want to go pin-high right of the basket for a good look at birdie, while a safe placement is middle-left of the fairway. An OB is marked on the far left side of the fairway.
4. Pro--345
Am--238
The safe play is short of the basket on the left side of this uphill par 3. The well-protected basket is accessible from the front and long-right side of the green.
5. Pro--280
Am--184
Short and technical, the basket on this short par 3 is best approached from the left side of the green.
6. Pro--339
Am--232
On a downhill shot to a well-protected basket behind a large juniper, this par 3 can be accessed from either the right of the basket, pin high--or short left, which will leave an uphill putt. The fence behind the basket is OB.
7. Pro--274
Am--191
Stay in the middle to birdie this short, uphill par 3.
8. Pro--434
Am--325
The first par 4 on the course finishes uphill. Long arms should stay right to have an eagle look, while solid drive placement in the middle of the fairway should lead to a birdie 3 opportunity.
9. Pro--277
Am--190
The front nine finishes with dog-leg left par 3. Stay in the middle/right side of the fairway to have a look at birdie.

Front 9 Totals—Par 28: Pro—2,891: Am—1,986

10. Pro/Am--187
The shortest hole on the course, the first hole of the back nine is a par 3-- uphill and aceable. Run it.
11. Pro--549
Am--392
The start of the Gauntlet, this par 4 works to a funneled fairway, and continues over the crest of the hill to an open green. Right and short of the funnel are good plays--unless you can carry the large junipers on either side of the gap. The asphalt on the right is OB.
12. Pro--478
Am--362
Stay to the right on this downhill par 4; the white pole marks the right side of the fairway with a look at the basket. The hole continues right where the basket is well protected by a circle of junipers.
13. Pro--545
Am--371
A par 4; the white pole marks the left side of the fairway. Stay right. The basket is located in a small, well protected green on the knob of a hill.
14. Pro--404
Am--348
An uphill, 90-degree dogleg right par 4. The white pole marks the right side of the first fairway with a look at the basket, which t is located right down a tunnel and green. Big arms may look at a big anhyzer over the junk--but the safe play is straight up the hill.
15. Pro--305
Am--240
A hillside to hillside par 3; the fence on the right is OB. Stay to the right side of the fairway for a look at birdie.
16. Pro--246
Am--195
Straightforward, short, downhill par 3; fence on the right is OB. Avoid the trees left of the basket.
17. Pro--600
Am--389
A lengthy par 4. The white pole marks the left side of the fairway and the fence on the right is OB. The fairway moves downhill before climbing left to the green on top of a hill.
18. Pro--544
Am--478
The finishing hole is an uphill par 4. The white pole marks a safe landing zone in front of a row of guardian trees. The fairway continues left to an open green--beware of the flagged hazard left of the basket.
